

another investigator arrives with the "rehabilitation germ" and she discovers the place isn't fit for Mrs. Jones and the family to dwell in. They must have another room at least; they must have more light and more air. Couldn't Mrs. Jones afford to pay a little more rent? Surely, she could get some work on the days when she wasn't employed at the Mary Crane Nursery and make the little extra money. She mustn't live in a place like that."

And so it goes. Cute little game, isn't it? But, unfortunately the victims of poverty are never in a playful mood. It is only the idle rich who finds amusement in games.

The funniest part of the whole thing is that the U. C. doesn't see anything funny about either rehabilitation or her sister visualization.

MACHINISTS SCORE GOODMAN PLANT IN RESOLUTION

The machinists' strike at the Goodman Manufacturing Company will be the subject of a resolution to be introduced at the United Mine Workers' convention, scheduled for Indianapolis the latter part of this month.

Following is the resolution:

"To the International Convention, United Mine Workers of America, "Greeting:

"Whereas, In union there is strength, and divided we fall, and an injury to one is the concern of all, and,

"Whereas, The machinists who work for the Goodman Machine Manufacturing Company of Chicago have been on strike for recognition of their union for over nineteen months, and that corporation absolutely refuses to recognize them in any manner and persists in hiring scabs to do their work for them, and,

"Whereas, The scab machinery of this labor crushing trust is used almost exclusively in the coal mines of Illinois and Indiana, and,

"Whereas, Under our present contract we are compelled to act as strikebreakers, by using this machinery, thus furnishing these scabs work, and,

"Whereas, If we refused to use this scab product these tyrants who are employing 'gunmen' and thugs to beat up and murder our striking brothers, this scab loving company, which is backed up by the National Manufacturers' Association, of unsavory reputation would be compelled to recognize the Machinists' Union or go out of business, therefore be it

"Resolved, That we go on record as endorsing the strike of the machinists at that plant, and be it further

"Resolved, We refuse to allow ourselves to be used as strikebreakers or the Mine Workers' Union as a strikebreaking agency, that we pledge our support to our striking brothers of the Machinists' Union and our scale committee be instructed to refuse to agree to any contract that makes assistants to scab out of us, and after this agreement expires we use no more machinery bought from a firm which is on the unfair list or where a strike is one and whose product is produced by scab labor. EUGENE GRACE DIES—RECALLS SENSATIONAL TRIAL

Newnan, Ga., Jan. 12.—An echo of the tragedy that aroused Georgia two years ago came yesterday in the death of Eugene Grace, wealthy clubman, who charged that his wife, Mrs. Daisy Opie Grace, shot him in the back two years ago. He has been an invalid ever since.

Mrs. Grace was tried on a charge of attempted murder, but was acquitted. Grace was carried into the courtroom on a cot during the trial. He claimed his wife shot him in hope of obtaining life insurance he carried.

The defense was that Grace was shot during a struggle with his wife for possession of a revolver, and she was acquitted.
